

- Isolation - racism -invisibility.
  - lack of confidence
- attempt to resolve the issues within the private circles
  - lack of awareness
- The 'Invisibility' of BME people in rural communities. The numbers game is still used
  - long-term commitment
  - leadership

Rural idyll

- capacity building
- the use of new technology and social media
- combating racist/ negative stereotyping and racial harassment/ discrimination
- developing a 'needs' based approach.
- increasing minority ethnic voice.
- empowered and engaged
- a 'holistic' approach
- developing local solutions and structures.
- within the overall rural policy context.

- Organisations meet their obligations
- Rural areas are still behind urban areas
- An ad hoc approach to funding and policy
- Lack of representation
- The reliance on individual voluntarily effort
- a 'needs' based approach
- need to be included in the political process
- rural areas are accessible to groups for leisure and recreation purposes

Rurality and Migrant Communities – '.... no problem here !!'

Mohammed Dhalech
midhal@ruralmosaic.info

- networking and sharing practice
- develop a voice
- influence policy and strategy
- provide a benchmark for 'good practice'
- develop and provide training & resources
- adopt new technology

- How do I take responsibility?
- What can I do differently?
  - how do I challenge rural racism?
  - what about economic/social/cultural benefits?
  - How to prepare local communities to deal with Migrants/refugees

Thank You

- lack of 'culturally' sensitive
- stereotyping
- lack of support to empower migrant communities.
- absence of accessible specialist support services

- Isolation - racism -invisibility.
- lack of confidence
- attempt to resolve the issues within the private circles
- lack of awareness
- The 'Invisibility' of BME people in rural communities. The numbers game is still used
- long-term commitment
- leadership

Rural idyll

- capacity building
- the use of new technology and social media
- combating racist/ negative stereotyping and racial harassment/ discrimination
- developing a 'needs' based approach.
- increasing minority ethnic voice.
- empowered and engaged
- a 'holistic' approach
- developing local solutions and structures.
- within the overall rural policy context.

- Organisations meet their obligations
- Rural areas are still behind urban areas
- An ad hoc approach to funding and policy
- Lack of representation
- The reliance on individual voluntarily effort
- a 'needs' based approach
- need to be included in the political process
- rural areas are accessible to groups for leisure and recreation purposes

Rurality and Migrant Communities – '.... no problem here !!'

Mohammed Dhalech
midhal@ruralmosaic.info

- networking and sharing practice
- develop a voice
- influence policy and strategy
- provide a benchmark for 'good practice'
- develop and provide training & resources
- adopt new technology

- How do I take responsibility?
- What can I do differently?
  - how do I challenge rural racism?
  - what about economic/social/cultural benefits?
  - How to prepare local communities to deal with Migrants/refugees

Thank You

- lack of 'culturally' sensitive
- stereotyping
- lack of support to empower migrant communities.
- absence of accessible specialist support services

Long term commitment

- leadership

Rural idyll

Rurality and Migrant Communities – ‘.... no problem here !!’

Mohammed Dhalech
midhal@ruralmosaic.info

- ne
- ru
- le ires.

- Organisations meet their obligations
- Rural areas are still behind urban areas
- An ad hoc approach to funding and policy
- Lack of representation
- The reliance on individual voluntarily effort
- a 'needs' based approach
- need to be included in the political process
- rural areas are accessible to groups for leisure and recreation purposes

- Isolation - racism -invisibility.
  - lack of confidence
- attempt to resolve the issues within the private circles
  - lack of awareness
- The ‘Invisibility’ of BME people in rural communities. The numbers game is still used
  - long-term commitment
  - leadership

Rural idyll

- lack of 'culturally' sensitive
- stereotyping
- lack of support to empower migrant communities.
- absence of accessible specialist support services

-
- capacity building
  - the use of new technology and social media
  - combating racist/ negative stereotyping and racial harassment/ discrimination
  - developing a 'needs' based approach.
  - increasing minority ethnic voice.
  - empowered and engaged
  - a 'holistic' approach
  - developing local solutions and structures.
  - within the overall rural policy context.

-
- networking and sharing practice
  - develop a voice
  - influence policy and strategy
  - provide a benchmark for 'good practice'
  - develop and provide training & resources
  - adopt new technology

How

- W
- h
- ra
- w
- C

ou

g &

How do I take responsibility?

- What can I do differently?
- how do I challenge rural racism?
- what about economic/social/cultural benefits?
- How to prepare local communities to deal with Migrants/refugees

Thank You

- Isolation - racism -invisibility.
- lack of confidence
- attempt to resolve the issues within the private circles
- lack of awareness
- The 'Invisibility' of BME people in rural communities. The numbers game is still used
- long-term commitment
- leadership

Rural idyll

- capacity building
- the use of new technology and social media
- combating racist/ negative stereotyping and racial harassment/ discrimination
- developing a 'needs' based approach.
- increasing minority ethnic voice.
- empowered and engaged
- a 'holistic' approach
- developing local solutions and structures.
- within the overall rural policy context.

- Organisations meet their obligations
- Rural areas are still behind urban areas
- An ad hoc approach to funding and policy
- Lack of representation
- The reliance on individual voluntarily effort
- a 'needs' based approach
- need to be included in the political process
- rural areas are accessible to groups for leisure and recreation purposes

Rurality and Migrant Communities – ‘.... no problem here !!’

Mohammed Dhalech
midhal@ruralmosaic.info

- networking and sharing practice
- develop a voice
- influence policy and strategy
- provide a benchmark for 'good practice'
- develop and provide training & resources
- adopt new technology

- How do I take responsibility?
- What can I do differently?
  - how do I challenge rural racism?
  - what about economic/social/cultural benefits?
  - How to prepare local communities to deal with Migrants/refugees

Thank You

- lack of 'culturally' sensitive
- stereotyping
- lack of support to empower migrant communities.
- absence of accessible specialist support services

